

The atlas colour tracks the loss, not the shape

When the colour inside the update box drains between consecutive steps, how often does each measure also improve?

Reading

Colour drains because misfit is fitted (111 of 111 cells: residual removed, not sensitivity lost).

It does not tell you whether the shape is converging. After kite's flank artefact forms, dimming goes with a worse Hausdorff error more often than a better one.